Forty Dollars Reward.

TO UN away from the subscriber living in Granville county, North Carolina, in March last, two bright male fellows; one by the name of BARTLEY, about 35 years of age, he has but little to say, and appears to be very humble; he is a tolerable good Shoemaker and Cooper, about 5 feet 10 or 11 inches high, and he is a well set negro.—GEORGE is about 25 years of age, about 6 feet high, spare made, but a very active negro, fond of drink, and a very forward saucy fellow. I expect they have obtained free passes and will endeavor to pass for fugitives; it is probable they are lurking at Hillsborough, Richmond or Petersburg; they were seen in Manchester a few days past. Any person taking them up and confining them in jail, or that I get them, shall have the above reward, $20 dollars for either, paid by the subscriber.

ROBERT GREENHOW,

MERCHANT in Williamsburg, returns his thanks to his good customers, and the public in general, for the support and encouragement he has experienced during the whole of his mercantile career. His time of life, and extensive dealings, renders it now absolutely necessary, that a respectable should be taken; that he should in a measure withdraw from business, and seriously set about the winding up of his past concerns. To accomplish which, he now enters all those in arrears, either by specialty or open accounts, to favor him so far, on the presentation of their respective debts, to come forward, & make payments; or give him satisfactory assurances, that on or before the year eighteen hundred and seven, such should be made.

From and after the 1st day of the ensuing year, the business of the store will be carried wholly on ROSCOW COLE, for whose conduct in every respect, he can for long experience vouch. It will be conducted under the name of GREENHOW & COLE, and it is not on the extensive scale that it has heretofore been, it will be generally found supplied with such articles as are most in demand—which being at all times purchased with Cash, will be disposed of for Cash, such Proceeds as may suit, and on CREDIT only to FAVORITE CUSTOMERS, on as low terms as possible.

ROSCOW COLE begs leave to assure all those who may favor him with their custom, that no exertion on his part shall be wanting, to give satisfaction. That he, or they, will (if health permits) be ever ready to attend the demands of customers, and endeavor to deserve, the PATRONAGE OF THE PUBLIC.

General Office of Insurance.

JANUARY 8th, 1896.
The general meeting of the Mutual Insurance Company against Fire on Goods and Furniture, in the state of Virginia, which took place this day, agreeably to notice previously given, in the public papers, was too thin, to authorize any proceedings, as to the general concerns of the company. The meeting was therefore adjourned until 10 o'clock in the morning of Tuesday the fourth day of next month.

As the affairs of the company are in such a state as to require imperiously, immediate attention, and as most of the members are now liable to incur all the disadvantages of the institution, without a possibility of being, in any degree, benefited by it, should any accident occur to them, it is earnestly hoped, as a matter of the first consequence to their individual interests, that they will be pointed in attending the said meeting, either personally or by proxy.

FOR SALE AT S. PLEASANTS' BOOK-STORE

ANDREW STEVENSON, in addition to the Courts of King William and Hanover, practices Law in the County Court of New Kent.

DISTRICT OF VIRGINIA, TO WIT:

It is remembered, that on the 30th day of January, in the thirtieth year of the Independence of the United States of America, John Seabrook of the said District, hath deposited in this office the title of a Map or Plan of the City of Richmond, the right whereof he claims as author in the words following to wit:

"A Map, or Plan of the City of Richmond,"

In conformity to the act of the Congress of the United States, entitled "An act for the encouragement of learning by securing the copies of maps, charts, and books to the authors and proprietors of such copies during the term therein mentioned."

Wm. Marshall, Clerk of Virginia District.

Proposals for publishing the above Map, or Plan may be seen at all the Book-Stores in this city; where gentlemen wishing to possess themselves of one or more impressions thereof, are respectfully invited to bestow their encouragement on an early period, that the proprietor may be better enabled to have the work executed with neatness and dispatch. The proprietor presumes it obvious to every one, that in a primary work of this nature, there will be many difficulties to surmount, much labor to be borne, and inevitable expense incurred, whilst the reward is in prospect; which though never so fair and flattering, may nevertheless prove deceptive, and disappoint his well founded hopes; to obviate which calamity in a degree, a small part of the premium is stipulated for in advance; the terms being six dollars, one of which to be paid at the time of subscribing, and the balance when the plan is delivered. Should the proprietor be advised thereof, he will transmit his proposals to some of the principal cities and towns within the state—in the mean time any gentleman at a distance willing to encourage the undertaking by becoming a subscriber thereof, shall be considered such by directing a letter to the proprietor expressive of that will.

A Valuable Manufacturing MILL TO RENT.

ON Monday the 6th day of March next, will be rented to the highest bidder, for one year, that valuable Manufacturing and Grist MILL, in the county of Amelia, belonging to the estate of the late, Col. John Royall, dec'd. It is situated near the mouth of a never failing stream, almost immediately upon the river Appomattox, distant about 45 miles from Petersburg, and 40 from Manchester. This mill possesses the great advantage of an abundant supply of water throughout the driest season, and its local situation is such as to afford it complete protection against the highest freshes we have yet known. The toll corn she receives amounts annually to 200 barrels and upwards. There is one pair of Burr stones and one set of Bolting cloths, both of which are of very superior quality, and the whole works have lately undergone a thorough repair. The four manufactured here and sent to Petersburg and Richmond for sale, has uniformly commanded as much, and in many instances more, than flour made in any other mill.

Attached to the mill are about 23 acres of land, upon which has lately been erected a commodious store and lumber house, cooper's shop, blacksmith's shop, stables, and some other out houses, all of which will be rented with the mill. A mercantile establishment at this place connected with the manufacturing business, it is believed would succeed very well. The above property will be rented upon the premises. Bond and security will be required to carry interest from the date if not punctually paid.

Family Bibles, School Bibles and Nonpareil Testaments.

M. CAREY,

RESPECTFULLY informs the Book-buyers, that throughout the Union, that he is now enabled to furnish the common Family Bibles by the single hundred, at as low a rate as they can be printed for, in editions of 4000 at a time, when the expense of composition is incurred for each edition. It is unnecessary to mention the heavy advances those large Editions require during their progress, and the great delay unavoidably attendant on them, at least eighteen months or two years. These are considerations that cannot escape the observation of those interested in the business, and which have been duly felt by such as have been concerned in the editions heretofore printed in this country.

It is not by any means the publisher's intention to depreciate or decry any works of the kind, either American or imported. But he begs leave to observe, that there are more curious and useful additions of Tables, &c. to be found in his Bibles, than in any extant—and the marginal references are three as numerous as in the Bibles usually imported or published here.

M. Carey's standing School Bible has been carefully read over, and all the battered and damaged letters removed. It is at least equal to any offered for sale in this country. The terms of sale are liberal as to price and credit.

Testaments printed on Nonpareil Types, and on excellent paper, to be had as above.

A Valuable Establishment FOR SALE.

M. CAREY intending to devote his attention chiefly to the manufacture of the above three articles, offers for sale on very liberal terms, his Miscellaneous assortment of BOOKS & STATIONERY, in whole or in part, as may suit the purchaser; and if necessary will give a lease for a few years of his store, No 122, Market-street, which is a stand is inferior to few in this city.

This holds out a very advantageous opportunity for a young man, possessed of a moderate capital, and capable of giving the necessary security. To such a person the payments will be made easy.
